JUDGMENT (Per Sri B.Prakash Rao, J)

Heard both sides and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

In this appeal, the appellant who is the writ petitioner seeks to assail the order rejecting the writ petition on the ground that the question involved has to be necessarily gone into only before the Labour Court or any such authority as contemplated under the law.

The claim of the appellant is that he was appointed by the respondents and therefore, he is entitled for regularization of service.

However, when there is a dispute with regard to the engagement of the appellant by the respondent corporation, the same cannot be gone into as rightly pointed out by the learned single Judge. In view of the same, we do not find any merits in this appeal.

Accordingly, the writ appeal is dismissed. No costs.
